

ANNUAL ALARA TRAINING

Each licensee is required to provide training to the lab staff before they work with radioactive materials and then annually. The annual training session must be documented and kept in your lab records for audit by Environmental Health and Radiation Safety (EHRS). Do not confuse the Licensee's in-lab ALARA training with the annual retraining session provided on line by EHRS. These are two separate requirements.

DATE:_____

Topics discussed:

Review the Radiation Safety User's Guide and any other information pertinent to your lab practice.

Lab personnel attending: